

RED PEPPER IN HIS EYES STOPS ALBERT'S FLIGHT

Then He Finds Himself in Court on Charge of Bigamy.

A can of red pepper was the magic instrument that brought trouble into the life of Philip Albert, of No. 1810 Second avenue, and a woman who asserts stoutly that she is his first and only legal wife, and that his right name is Dietrich Schwamb. He was arraigned in Harlem Court, to-day, but he did not do any talking. He was held in $1,000 bail until Friday.

The man is a butcher, wears Kaiser Wilhelm, trimmed mustaches, and for five years at least has been known as Philip Albert, husband of petite Marie Albert and a resident at the Second avenue flat-house. The woman who says she married him eighteen years ago is Mrs. Christina Kruse Schwamb, of No. 106 East One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street. She is an officer in the Salvation Army. She said in court to-day that she was getting money "to keep the pot boiling" for the Army, when she discovered him two weeks ago. She said she found him in the saloon on the ground floor of the Second avenue flat-house, but that he tried his up-turned mustache and denied his identity. He used to be smooth-shaven. She was certain of her case, and went to see Assemblyman Wagner, about it. Meanwhile she got into communication with Marie Albert.

And here the red pepper comes in to season the story. In the darkness and the quiet of the night the Christmas dinner, last night there came a thumping noise in the hallway of the flat-house. Then there were many thumps. A trunk slid down a flight of stairs and smashed in the door of the apartment occupied by Mrs. Augustina Herdman, the landlady of the flat-house.

It was the trunk of Philip Albert. He was in his smoking feet and he had been trying to take it out. His wife, little Marie, was not at home. The landlady, according to Albert, flashed a can of cayenne and seasoned him with it, some of it getting into his eyes. He tried to have Mrs. Herdman arrested, and by the time Marie Albert returned everybody knew of how he had attempted to carry his trunk away.

Marie said nothing to him but telephoned Mrs. Schwamb the simple message: "He's trying to escape."

Here entered Mrs. Schwamb into the ken of the police with a charge of bigamy. The police were looking for her over night. When, with pepper in his eyes, he was led into court to-day he saw both women sitting together. He said that he wanted a lawyer, and the case went over.

BOY IS CRUSHED TO DEATH IN ELEVATOR

Emanuel Goldberg's Fellow Employees Ran for Police Instead of Helping Him.

NO WORK NO PAY LAW FOUND IN CONGRESS.

Empty Seats Will Prove Costly to National Legislators if Old Rule Stands.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—Congressman John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, who is in favor of enacting a new statute providing that members of Congress shall forfeit $10 for every day they are absent, announces that as a result of a search through the old documents at the Capitol he has found that a statute passed in 1886, which prohibits absent members from collecting their salaries unless they are kept from their official duties by illness, has never been repealed.

An attempt was made to enforce this law, he says, in the Fifty-second Congress, which resulted in a strenuous effort to repeal the statute in 1894, when the Democrats had control of the House. Representative Gaines will call the attention of Congress to the statute, he says, and insist that it be enforced.

TURKEY WAS THEIR WEAPON.

Disappointed Borders Hurled Christmas Bird in Fight.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 25.—Because the turkey was not cooked to suit the borders, and cranberry sauce was missing, there was a riot at the boarding-house kept by Ivan Fowler at McKeesport last night. The men fought for several hours, and the police arrived at last until the police arrived. Thirteen of the borders were arrested and a half-dozen or more were attended by surgeons.

GOOD COTTON CROP IN ASIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 25.—The cotton harvest in Central Asia is extremely good, 17,000 carloads, instead of the usual 12,000, being available for export. The railroads will require special facilities to transport the cotton.

Muslin Underwear

Household Linens, White Waists, Corsets and Men's Collars

THERE is little need of introduction. A retailing event that has been prominent for ten years and supreme among all its kind for at least five years, requires no "opening remarks" on its eleventh appearance. The difference between this sale and all others of the sort is partly in the fact that our prices are lowest, but lies even more in the fact that the garments offered are NOT made up especially for the event. They are NOT "made-to-sell-cheap" garments. They are the regular lines of careful and responsible manufacturers, made in accordance with their most rigid standards.

The prices are made low merely because our orders were very large and were placed at the right time. Also because we clip a large slice off our usual retailing profit during this sale.

Women will find even in the lowest-priced of these garments an excellence of finish and a general daintiness that come only from careful work on first-class materials, guided by a trained and exquisite taste.
